"Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful, committed citizens can change the world; indeed, it's the only thing that ever has". -Margaret Mead

Bullying, exclusion and intolerance have been in the spotlight this month. In addition to the All-School Anti-Bullying assembly this week, 3rd graders were given the opportunity to take part in the Super Kids' Book Club where the following committed parent volunteers led thoughtful peer discussions about bullying: District 102 Superintendent, Dr. Kyle Schumacher, Gia Broderick, Lauren Cahoon, Jennie D'Apice, Katherine Haussermann, Matt Hernandez, Gina Lotus, Courtney Mahaney, Sara Whittleton,

Brett Whittleton, 6th grader Luke Whittleton, Ali Zygmunt. Special thanks to coordinators Christen Shorrock and Sarah Flynn. Do you have more ideas for programs? Contact Kerry Forsythe.

Dr. John Duffy's parent presentation on character, resilience and emotional intelligence was a success. Did you have a schedule conflict for the talk or simply want more content from Dr. Duffy? Go to drjohnduffy.com where you can subscribe to his podcasts (highly recommended) or follow him on Facebook.
